

Landscapes2017 is a juried art exhibition presented as a collaboration between B-W Greenway Community Land Trust & Fairborn Art Association. It was established to heighten public awareness of our local greenspaces and the need to preserve them, as well as to foster an interest in nature as inspiration for art.

Each year since 2010 a different location in the Fairborn, OH, area has been chosen as the subject for artwork. The 2017 locations are Estel Wenrick Wetlands and Cantrel property. See map and directions to these sites inside this brochure.

Exhibition - July, 2016

The judge for Landscapes2017 is Ms. Jean Koeller. Jean teaches painting at Stivers School for Arts. She received her BFA from Wright State University, and she also attended Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture as an undergraduate. Her MFA in painting was granted by Parsons School of Art and Design where she studied with Leland Bell and Paul Resika.

Koeller's recent residencies were at Heliker Foundation on Cranberry Island, MA, and Jentel Foundation in Wyoming. Recent one-person shows were at Purdue & Wittenberg Universities and Dutoit Gallery, and she will have a one-person show at the Springfield Museum of Art in 2018. She is represented by Keny Gallery in Columbus.

Jean has received numerous grants and awards, and she has works in public and private collections all around the US.

She has been painting for over 30 years.

The site for Landscapes2017 is the Estel Wenrick Wetlands, Medway, OH, with the addition of the recently acquired Mad River Entrance.

The main parking lot for EWW is at 2855 Union Road 4/10 mile south of Lower Valley Pike (1). There is a sign at the road side. There is a small village parking lot at the SE corner of the intersection of Spangler Rd. and Lower Valley Pike/Main St. (2) in Medway.

There are public walking trails through the wetlands. Please be respectful of the habitat, and take out whatever you bring into the site.

Access to the Mad River Entrance can be made across the road from the parking lot (3). Please be careful in crossing Spangler Rd. to reach this site.
