

Watercolor – Working with Perspective

With Yuki Hall, OWS

www.yukihallfineart.com

Monday morning, watercolor painting class (8 weeks) taught by Yuki Hall, ows

March 26th to May 21st, 2018, 9:30 – 12: 30 (class will not meet on April 30)

at Fairborn Art Association Gallery, located at the rear of the Fairborn Senior Apartment Building, 221 North Central Avenue, Fairborn, Ohio

Yuki Hall is an award winning watercolor artist known for her loose style and spontaneous approach to working with the medium. Her work has been accepted into prestigious national & international level watercolor juried competitions including the National Juried Exhibition of Transparent Watercolor Society of America, Kenosha, WI in 2017 & 2014, and the Watercolor West International Juried Exhibition, Brea, CA in 2014, where she won the Founders Award. Her works also have been published by highly competitive national art/watercolor publications: three consecutive years (April 2014 & April 2015 & April 2016 issues) in Watercolor Artist Magazine Water media Showcase Winners; and Splash 16 - Exploring Texture (June 2015), North Light Books. Yuki was also one of the finalists in the Artists Magazine Annual Art Competition, 2013.

In this 8-week course, students will learn fundamental concepts and application of both aerial and linear perspective. Perspective is by far the most important tool to create a sense of 3-dimensional depth in a 2-dimensional picture plane. Used effectively, it allows us to inject a powerful mood and atmosphere in your paintings. However, many students are intimidated about the term “perspective” thinking it is only understood by artists with some architectural or engineering background. Nothing is farther from the truth. Perspective, discussed and demonstrated in simple, step-by-step fashion with practical examples, can be easily understood and utilized by students of any background and any skill levels. A generous amount of class time will be spent on drawing lessons using various perspective tools, as well as other design concepts that are important for creating paintings with strong visual impact.

Yuki’s highly-organized, friendly, and non-intimidating teaching style has been well received for years by students of all levels.

The cost for this 8-week class is $105. To register, please send the payment and the registration form below to Yuki Hall, 4136 Fox Fern Ct. Beaver Creek, OH 45432. For any questions regarding this class, please call or e-mail Yuki at (937) 679-2464, yukihallfineart@gmail.com www.yukihallfineart.com

Classes will be on Mondays, March 26 to May 21, 2018, 9:30 am to 12:30 pm in the FAA Gallery.

Please include this section in your payment

Registration Form: "Watercolor – Working with Perspective" by Yuki Hall, ows March 26 - May 21, 2018

Name: _____ Address: _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____